Models constructed

EXTRACT FROM THE CONSTITUTION OF THE GUILD OF MODEL WHEELWRIGHTS

Objectives.

To promote precision scale modeling of horse drawn vehicles and related items as a none-commercial hobby by means of constructing from scratch and staging exhibitions.

Membership.

a) Admission open to all persons on:

- o Having submitted a properly completed application form in which the intending Member agrees to abide by these rules and any related Code(s) of practice.
- o Being accepted by the Committee.
- o Having paid their annual subscription.

b) Types of Member.

- o Ordinary Member – for persons who have constructed models to a good standard and have expressed the intention to show them at several of the exhibitions staged by the Guild each year. A member of the family of a deceased Ordinary Member may be included at the discretion of the Committee.
- o Associate Member – for persons with an interest in the activities of the Guild, but not satisfying the requirements for Ordinary Membership. The spouse or partner of an Ordinary Member is automatically an Associate Member. Other family members may be included at the discretion of the Committee.

c) Subscription – Annual, due on 1st January.

- o Ordinary and Associate members ----- £10
- o Overseas members ----- £10
- o Honorary and Family members exempt.

d) Termination of Membership.

- o The Committee may terminate membership for any person who is in arrears of subscription or who, in its opinion, has behaved in a manner unworthy of Guild membership.

Those of you wishing an alternative to posting off this form and including a cheque can follow the five steps indicated below.

1. Print off this Application Form.
2. Fill in all the boxes – name, address etc, then scan it and copy it onto your PC.
3. Next: paste it as an attachment in an email to: - treasurer@guildofmodelwheelwrights.org
4. Use this same email to send your PayPal payment of £10.
5. All this can be done in a few minutes and there is no hassle of envelopes and postage stamps; and Grev, the Treasurer, will receive your completed Application Form and payment immediately.

When membership ceases, for any reason, all Guild property shall be returned to the Treasurer.

I agree to abide by the rules of the Guild, to allow the Guild to keep details of my membership on a computer, and circulate these details to other Guild members in the form of an address list.
